

Battle of The Atlantic – The Arctic Convoys 5oz Silver Coin

USP:

- A high relief design on a 5oz Silver Coin commemorating the Arctic Convoys of the Second World War.

SSP:

- High relief design commemorating Convoy PQ-17
- Presented in a beautiful display box
- Struck to Proof Quality
- The design depicts the harsh realities of Merchant Convoys in the Battle of the Atlantic.

● The Reverse design depicts a typical Arctic convoy scene. The weather, ice and waves were the hardest conditions to work in and these are depicted in the design with a Merchant vessel making its way towards Russia in the icy waters of the North Atlantic, at the bottom of the design a naval sailor shines a search light covered in ice. The inscription reads 'THE ARCTIC CONVOYS 1941 – 1945'.

● The Obverse design will depict the Ian Rank Broadley effigy. In keeping with UK and on the Gibraltar coinage the outside of the coin will include the Latin inscription; Elizabeth II DEI GRA REGINA GIBRLATAR, which translates to; Elizabeth II by the grace of god, Queen of Gibraltar and includes the denominational value and its year of issue.
