

Battle of Atlantic Quarter Sovereign

Summary

The Merchant Navy is often referred to as the 'Fourth Service', but it has also become the forgotten service, with the huge contribution of the merchant fleet during the war too often overlooked and undervalued. The thousands of merchant seafarers who made up the 'Fourth Service' during the war are our 'unsung heroes' – their heroism and the sacrifices largely unreported and uncelebrated.

USP

- The Official Battle of Atlantic Quarter Sovereign, minted in association with the Merchant Navy Association

SSP

- Officially endorsed by the Merchant Navy Association
- Limited Edition – only 1,100 quarter sovereigns issued worldwide
- Minted in the highest possible proof quality
- Struck in honour and remembrance of all those who served in Britain's Merchant Navy during the Battle of Atlantic
- Features the Ian Rank Broadley effigy of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II
- Struck in Solid 22 Carat Gold
- One Year Only Type – each gold coin bears a unique Merchant Navy Mint Mark

Battle of Atlantic Quarter Sovereign

HAWA	8520890815
Sales Price	£198
Mintage	1,100

Denomination	Metal	Diameter	Weight	Finish	Edition Limit	Issuing Authority	Year of Issue
Quarter Sovereign	Gold	13.50mm	3.11 grams	Proof	1,100	Gibraltar	2016